

Abstract: The article is a philological research in the first treatise devoted to the structure and function of the teeth written in Latin. The author analyzes the Latin odontological vocabulary and the rhetorical methods used by Bartholomaeus Eustachius in order to facilitate readers' understanding of transmitted informations.

Keywords: Neo-Latin, vocabulary, odontology, rhetoric, Bartholomaeus Eustachius